

The Early Intervention "granny" Program makes inroads on two fronts: it addresses the developmental delays children in institutions suffer and it is a source of employment for local women with a background in child care. Two new programs are scheduled to open in Azerbaijan this fall in Shagan, Baku and Saray, Baku. Help us make this happen.