

An innovative program, The Early Intervention ("granny") program is making inroads on two fronts: it addresses the developmental delays children living in institutions suffer and it is a source of employment for local women with a background in child care. The program began in Targoviste, spread to orphanages in Ruse and Pleven, and two more programs will be opening in Azerbaijan in the fall.